RETURNS/WARRANTY:

- Warranty periods vary by product. See our warranty policy located on the inside back cover of this pricing guide, or visit our website for more information.
- Returns from end users must be accompanied by the original proof of purchase, no exceptions.
- Replacement items can be sent in advance of Brooking's receipt of the defective item(s).
  - Authorized Distributor Procedure: A replacement will be processed and shipped. Distributor will be billed as usual via emailed invoice, with an office generated RMA number in place of a customer PO number. Once the defective item(s) are received at our facility, and deemed defective, the invoice will be cleared with a credit memo. If the defect is a result of user error, the customer will be notified, and will be responsible for payment of invoice. Items can be returned to customer, who will be responsible for return shipping charges.
  - End User Procedure: Since no credit terms have been established between the two parties, the transaction will take place using an end user provided credit card. The card will be charged the full amount of the replacement(s) sent in advance. When the defective item(s) are received by Brooking, and the defect is deemed a defect in craftsmanship and not user error, the same credit card will be refunded the full amount of the initial charge.
  - WE STRONGLY URGE YOU TO BENCH TEST POTENTIALLY DEFECTIVE PRODUCTS PRIOR TO INITIATING THE RMA PROCESS AS THERE ARE SEVERAL FACTORS THAT COULD CONTRIBUTE TO LACK OF PERFORMANCE (LOOSE GROUND, BAD CONNECTION TO POWER / SWITCHING SOURCE, ETC.)
- Please allow up to 3 weeks for your request to be processed / considered.
- For quick turn-around, and less red tape, we recommend purchasing your replacements via our standard ordering procedure, then returning the defective items and requesting account credit. Keeping oft used products in stock is the most efficient way to handle replacement of defective items, we urge you to consider this.
