Cajon

Looking for something a little different? Cajons are perfect for outdoor performances. Our version is inspired by the traditional Cuban/ Peruvian Cajon drums. The resonating box is made from stainless steel for all year outdoor use and is very responsive and easy to play. They are attractive, very sturdy and can double up as a seating solution. Several together form the perfect drum circle!

Sambas. With a variety of pitch range and tonal character everyone is sure to have their own favourite.

Rainbow Sambas (Pg.4)

Alto Quartet Ensemble

The Alto Quartet Ensemble is the bigger sibling to the Soprano Quartet Ensemble, an ideal solution for when you've got more space to play with and a little more budget. This quartet is comprised of the Duo Cupla – offering both aluminium and fibreglass notes, a towering set of 3 Emperor Chimes, our Alto Diatonic Freechimes and a complete Congas Trio. This set can be installed all together or can easily be split up into smaller musical ensembles. The Diatonic Freechimes give an additional dimension to this quartet allowing further musical exploration.

Quintet Ensemble

The Quintet Ensemble of musical instruments offers a well-rounded range of tones and resonance. Anyone can take the stage and play improvised music with no tuition or acknowledged musical ability. This pentatonic set offers a varied range of tones, and sounds blend effortlessly into beautiful music. Comprising Cherub, Sansa-Rimba, the warm tones of the Akadinda and a set of 7 Tubular Bells all accompany the Rainbow Sambas... the beat goes on.

Cherub (Pg.16), Sansa-Rimba Mysteria (Pg.24), Akadinda (Pg.29), Tubular Bells (Pg.13), Rainbow Sambas (Pg.4)

This hardy and robust ensemble is created predominantly from stainless steel, able to withstand the toughest of environments yet featuring graceful and sculptural lines. The Hexad Ensemble comprises 6 musical instruments with a wide and curious range of timbres and pitch, from the Tubular Bells to the Bell Lyre. The set has many other features including Large and Small Babel Drums and our Handpipes plus a plosive aerophone. Everyone is sure to enjoy exploring how the different sounds are produced.

Tubular Bells (Pg.13), Handpipes (Pg.10), Bell Lyre (Pg.20)

Our biggest and most diverse arrangement, the Septet Ensemble features the greatest pitch range of any musical ensemble we have created, from the low C3 through 4 complete octaves to high C7. Whether you're enthusiastic amateurs or accomplished musicians you'll be able to create beautiful music with this ensemble. Play in a drumming circle as a group, build up a solo crescendo on the Colossus Chimes or play with up to 4 players simultaneously on the Papilio Bells. The complete ensemble also includes Large and Small Babel Drums, the Bell Lyre and Handpipes.
