

Steffy Wood Products

Early Childhood Furniture

High quality, integrated design solutions that meet staff's, parents', community's and children's needs.

We build more than childhood furniture.
We build for the future.

We use traditional methods of assembly, hand sanding and finishing combined with state-of-the-art computer-aided design and CNC machining technology to produce high-quality, early-learning furniture that will last for generations.

Our mission: To produce safe, sturdy, functional early childhood furniture and storage systems of excellent quality and design. We set high standards because we believe our products should last for generations. That's why we back every product we make with a *Lifetime Warranty. Using only the best materials and traditional American craftsmanship, we've built a brand we're proud to put our name on.

Our uncompromising attention to safety: Our products are designed, manufactured and tested against stringent specifications. All corners are rounded and surfaces are smooth to be super-safe in the classroom. We use full-length hinges to prevent little fingers from getting pinched. Special attention is given to ensure small parts stay firmly attached under rigorous use. Our super-tough, eco-friendly UV finish meets the most stringent safety requirements and makes all of our products easy to disinfect. All the wood products we manufacture are GREENGUARD® Gold certified, so you can feel confident about their superior safety, high quality and contribution to a healthier indoor environment for children. We set high standards because we know who the end user is and because we're parents too.

Our promise: Our business began in 1998 and we've grown each year because of you, our valued customer. We promise to provide you with quality products at competitive prices, on-time deliveries from our centrally located manufacturing facility and outstanding, hassle-free service. You have our word.

Quality and service you can count on.

Safety - We go the extra mile to ensure all of our products are designed and made to meet and exceed federal safety standards. We know who the end user is—we're parents and grandparents too!

Made in the USA - The American legacy of honest, hard work is evident in the work that comes out of our plant. Our products are made with pride from good-hearted folks who live in America's heartland.

Lifetime Warranty - We back every product we make with a limited lifetime warranty. See page 2 for details.

Product Support - We promise to provide you with quality products at competitive prices, on-time deliveries from our centrally located manufacturing facility and outstanding, hassle-free service. You have our word.

Environmental Commitment - We care about the world we'll leave our children. We source our materials from responsibly-managed forests and choose finishes that pass stringent indoor air quality standards—nothing less will do for our children.

Distribution - We sell our goods through knowledgeable educational distributors and dealers to schools, childcare centers, Head Start facilities, churches, libraries and homes throughout North America and abroad.

Can't find what you need? - Have a need for custom work? Our design team will be happy to work with you!
